

Date: August 3, 2018

VISITING FACULTY REQUIRED

Visiting faculty is required in Department of CS & IT, University of Sargodha to teach various courses in Fall 2018 semester including but may not be limited to

- Human Computer Interaction
- Enterprise Resource Planning
- Software Design & Architecture
- Programming Fundamentals
- Introduction to ICT
- Web System & Technologies

Please submit your application (along with CV) in main office department of CS&IT. Specifically mention the courses of interest to teach. Only short listed candidates will be called for interview/demo.

Bring course outline (32 lectures breakup), planned assignment statements, planned course project statements, and planned quizzes during the interview. Preference will be given to the candidates that will accompany Lab manuals during the interview.

Eligibility

- Candidate should have minimum qualification of lecturer according to HEC rules.

Terms & Conditions

- Visiting faculty member will spend one extra hour in the department on the day of lecture for students counseling and coaching.
- Visiting faculty member will submit the final/mid-term papers to undergraduate/postgraduate committee one week prior to exam for technical evaluation of paper to maintain the assessment quality.
- Visiting faculty member will have to contribute in department by becoming part of academic

Submission Deadline:

- Application should reach main office department of CS&IT not later than August 13, 2018.